PROJECTS

Personal Portfolio website (10/2021 - Present)

- I have Created my Own Website and added some study materials, skills of mine, contact information.

Pizza Delivery System (04/2021 - 06/2021)

- This was an group project which was given us by our university. We have added all functionalities which user needs.

xCode onlince code editor And Compiler (08/2021 - 11/2021)

- This was an group project which was given us by our university. This code editor able to run codes of python, c++, c, node.js, php. and we have also included some quizzes.

PyGithub-Bots (01/2022 - 04/2022)

- Nowadays people are very much in development, and github is the most favorite place for managing and deploying projects. So there should be some things which can do stuff automatically that is not very much important but it takes time to do. So At that time, bots come into the picture.
- Bots can automatically respond to users, apply labels, close issues, create new issues, and even merge pull requests, so developers can save their time for the development and get rid of wasting of time in this such type of work.
